

nuke

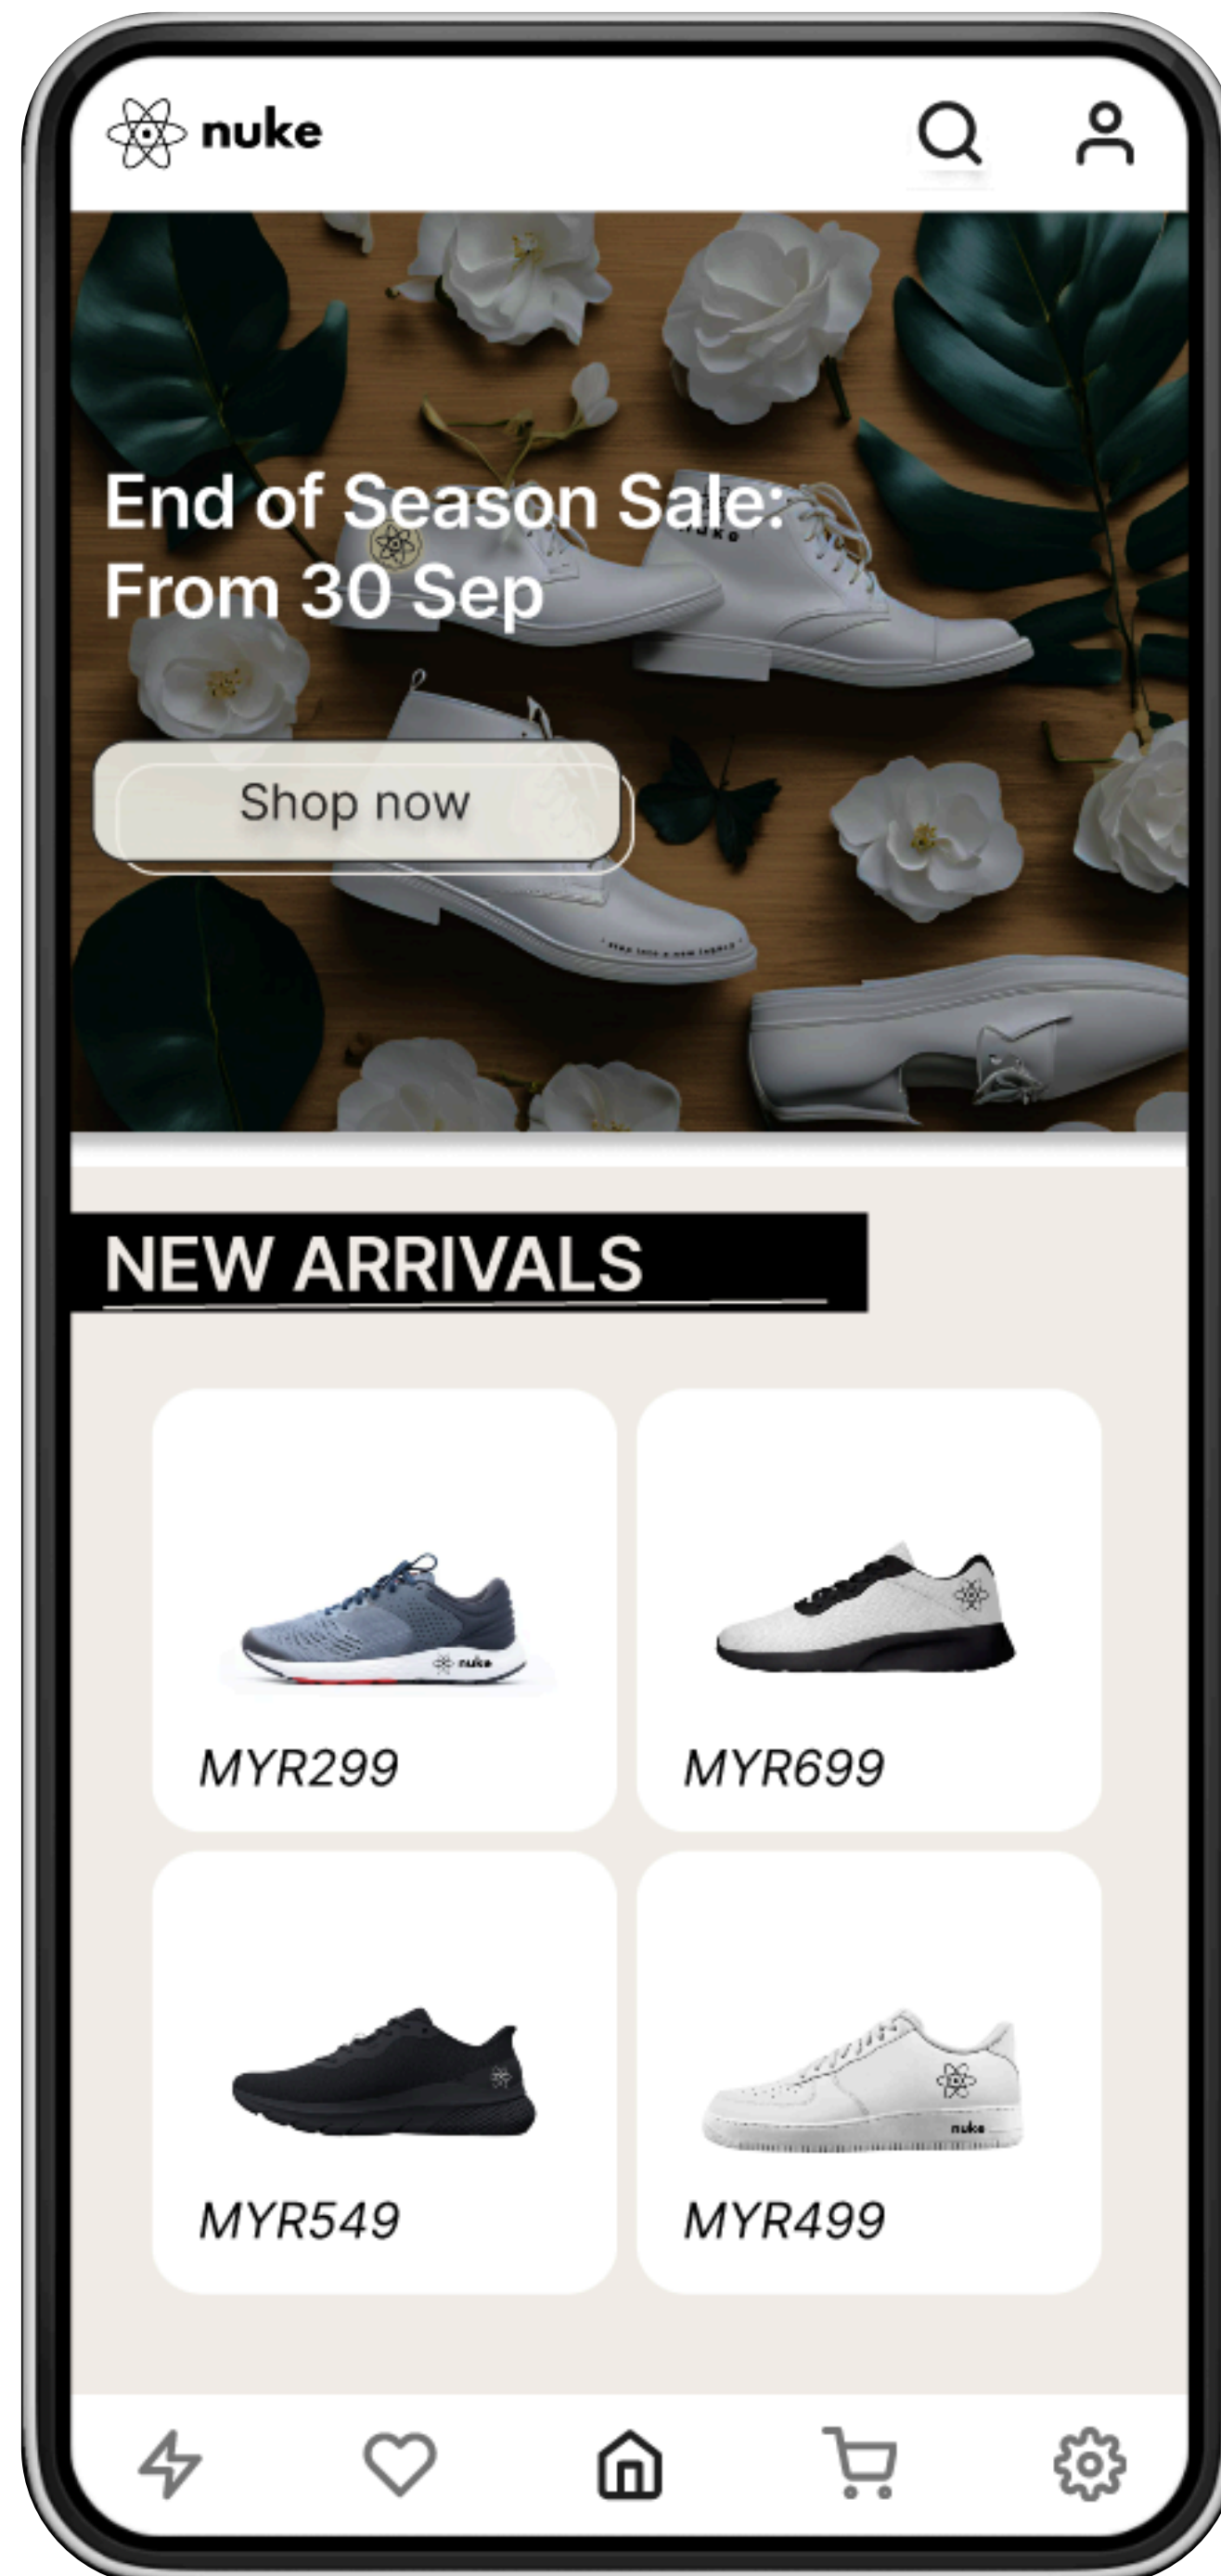

NUKE MOBILE APP

User Manual

nuke

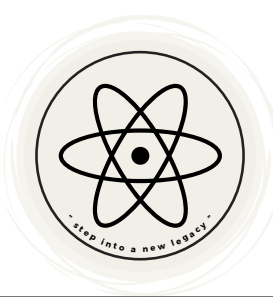

TARGET AUDIENCE

Our target audience for this user manual are towards the users of our Mobile Applications.

INTRODUCTIONS

Our user manual mainly discusses on the major functions that our applications contains and provides clear instructions on how to correctly uses our applications.

nuke

SIGNUP / LOGIN PAGE

Sign Up
Enter your credentials to continue

Email

Password

Sign Up

Already have an account?

Welcome back!
Enter your email and password

Email

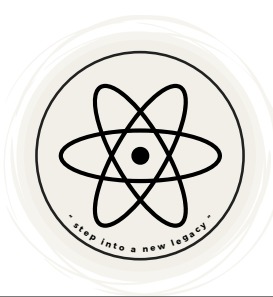

Password

Login

Don't have an account?

Clicking on either of the “RED Underlined” text would allow you to switch to signup if you don't already have an account or login if you already have a nuke account.

- After that, enter your Email & Password and click on Sign Up/Login to proceed

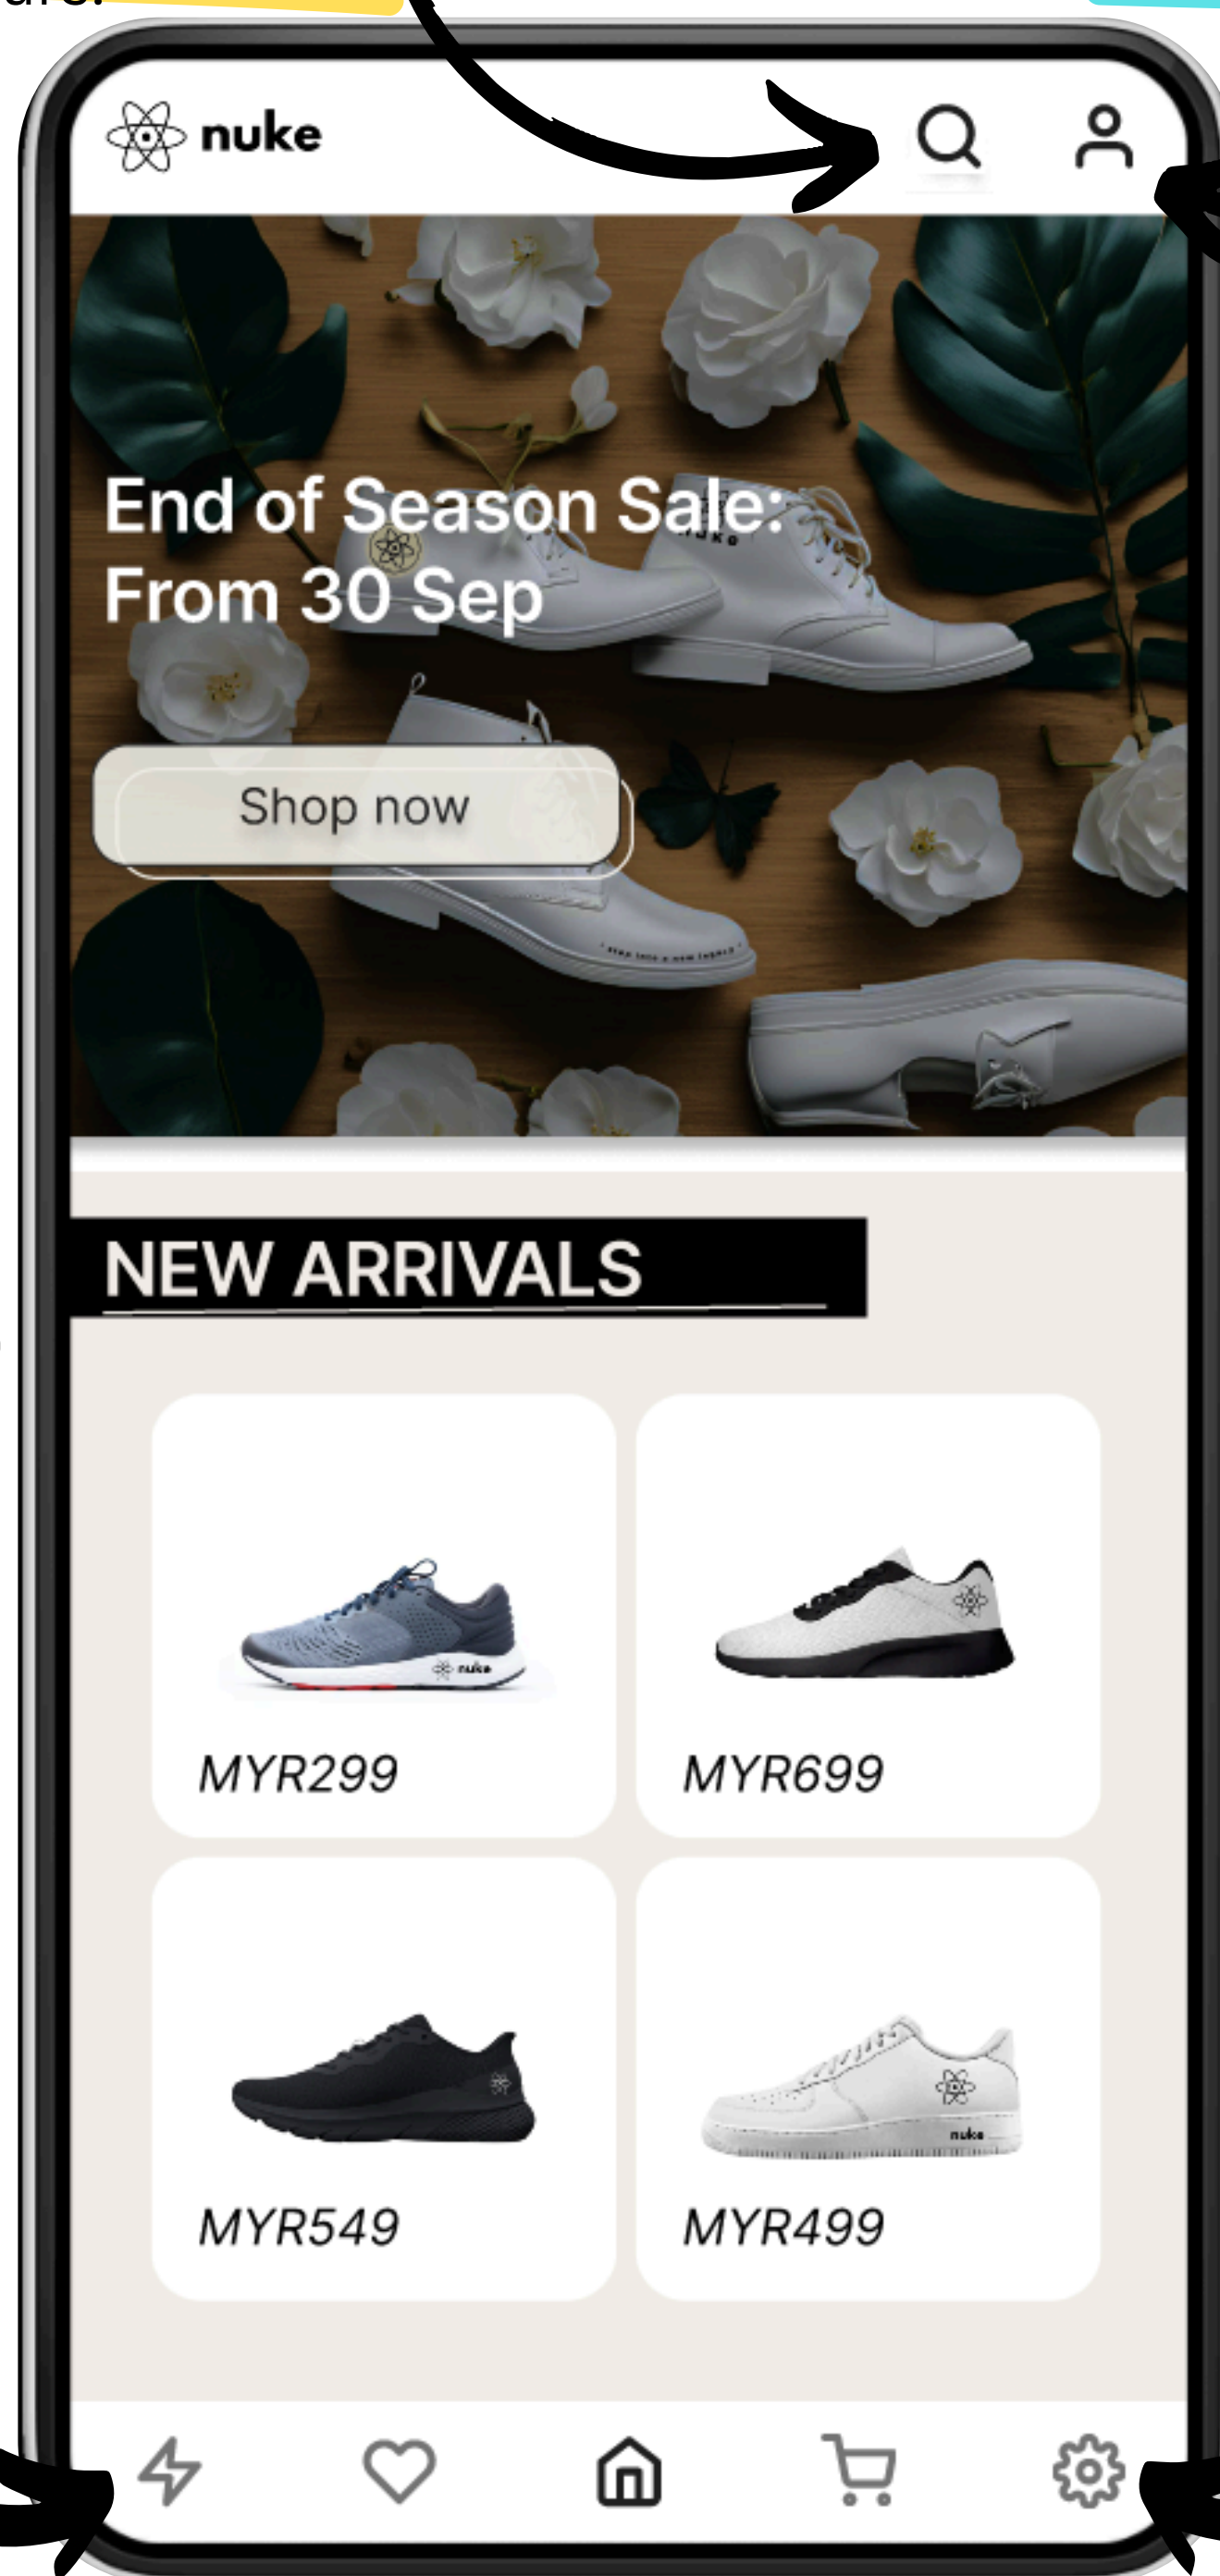

nuke

HOME PAGE

Clicking on the search bar allows you to search for the desired products of yours.

To view your personal information, click on this button for more detail of your account informations.

Click on either the "Shop Now" button will bring you to the shop page or click on any shoes that you are interested to directly shop that shoe

This button is "Top Picks For You". It will recommend all new releases or sneakers that suits you and display it for you automatically based on your likings.

This is the "Setting" Button all the mobile applications setting and TOS or FAQ could be found here.

This is the "Favourite" Button. All products that have been liked by user will appear in this page.

This "Cart" Button allows user to add all products that they wanted to purchase and checkout here.

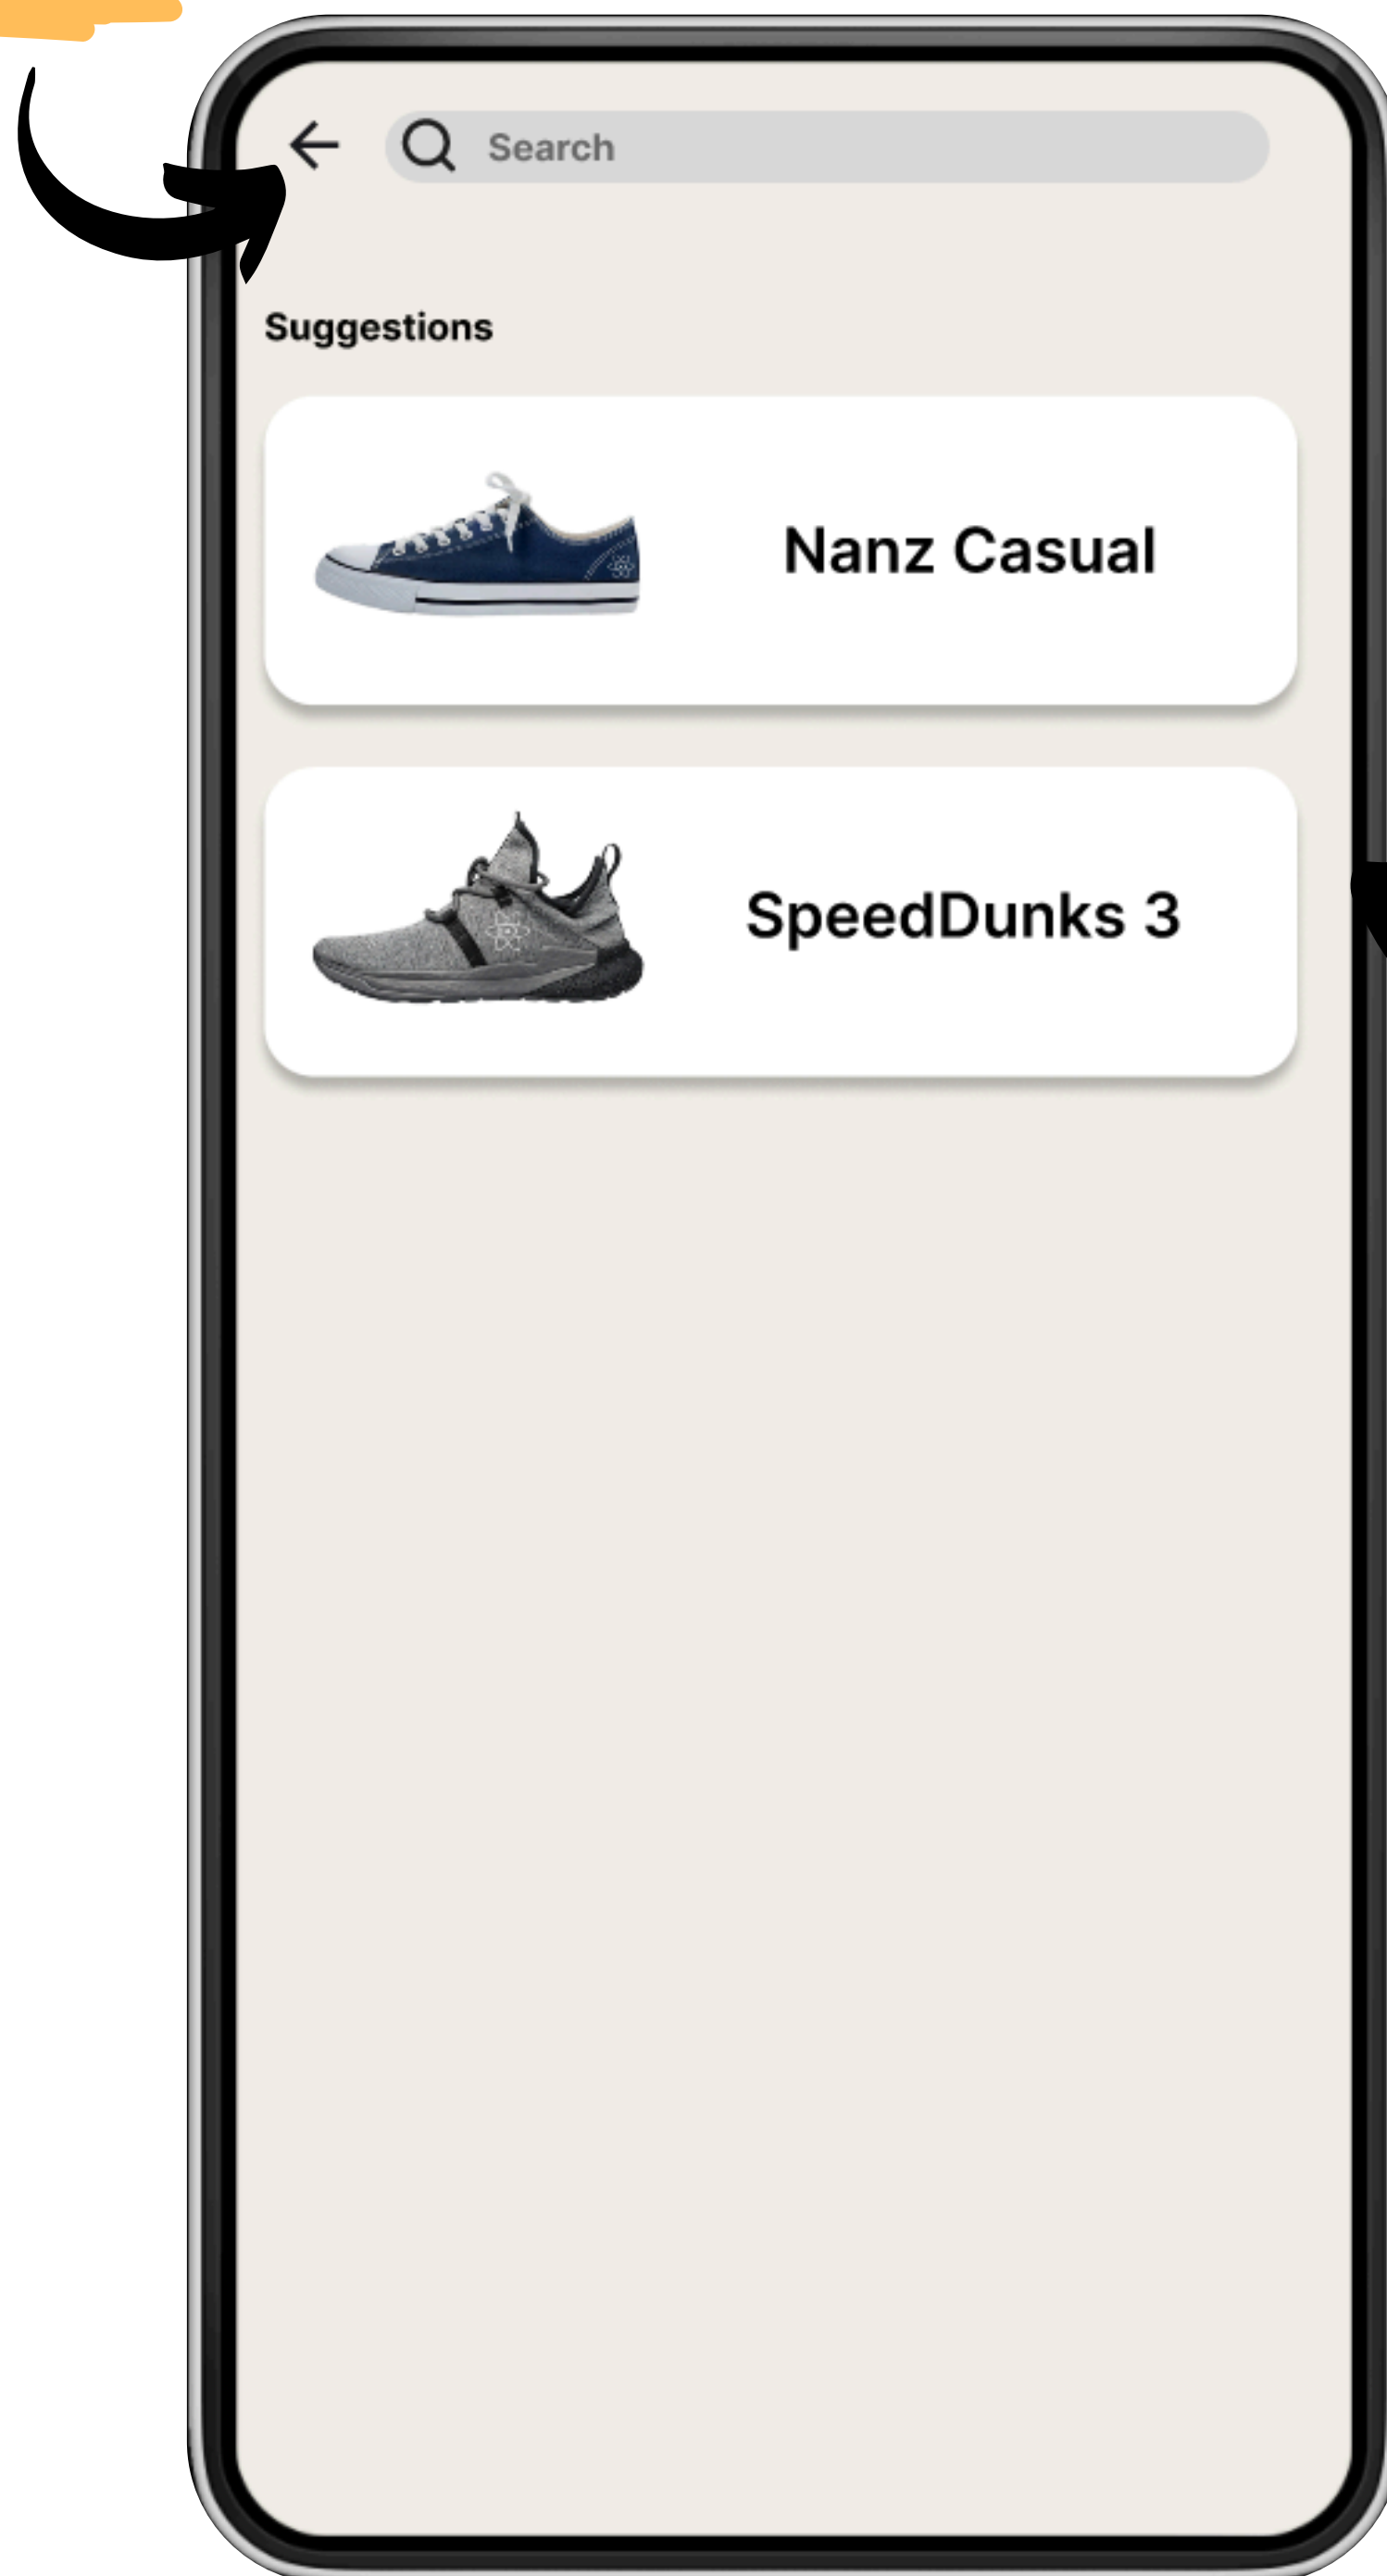

This is the "Home" Button. This button allows user to come back to this page whenever and wherever they wanted.

nuke

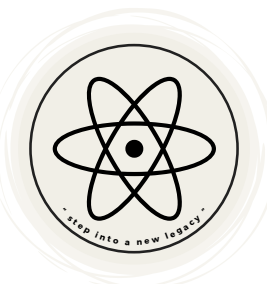

SEARCH PAGE

The top part is the Search Bar, Search for names or products that you are looking for and the products will show up.

This is the Suggestion area
This place recommends sneakers to users in case our users didn't know what to look for specifically.

- This is the search page. It will allow use to search for a specific pair of sneakers that they would like to buy or look from the suggestion area.

nuke

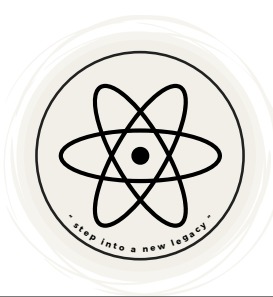

PROFILE PAGE

Clicking the “Edit Profile” Buttons allows you to change your profile picture or your username that would show to everyone else.

If you are not using your account anymore, you can click the “Log Out” Button to log = out so that other people cant use your accounts.

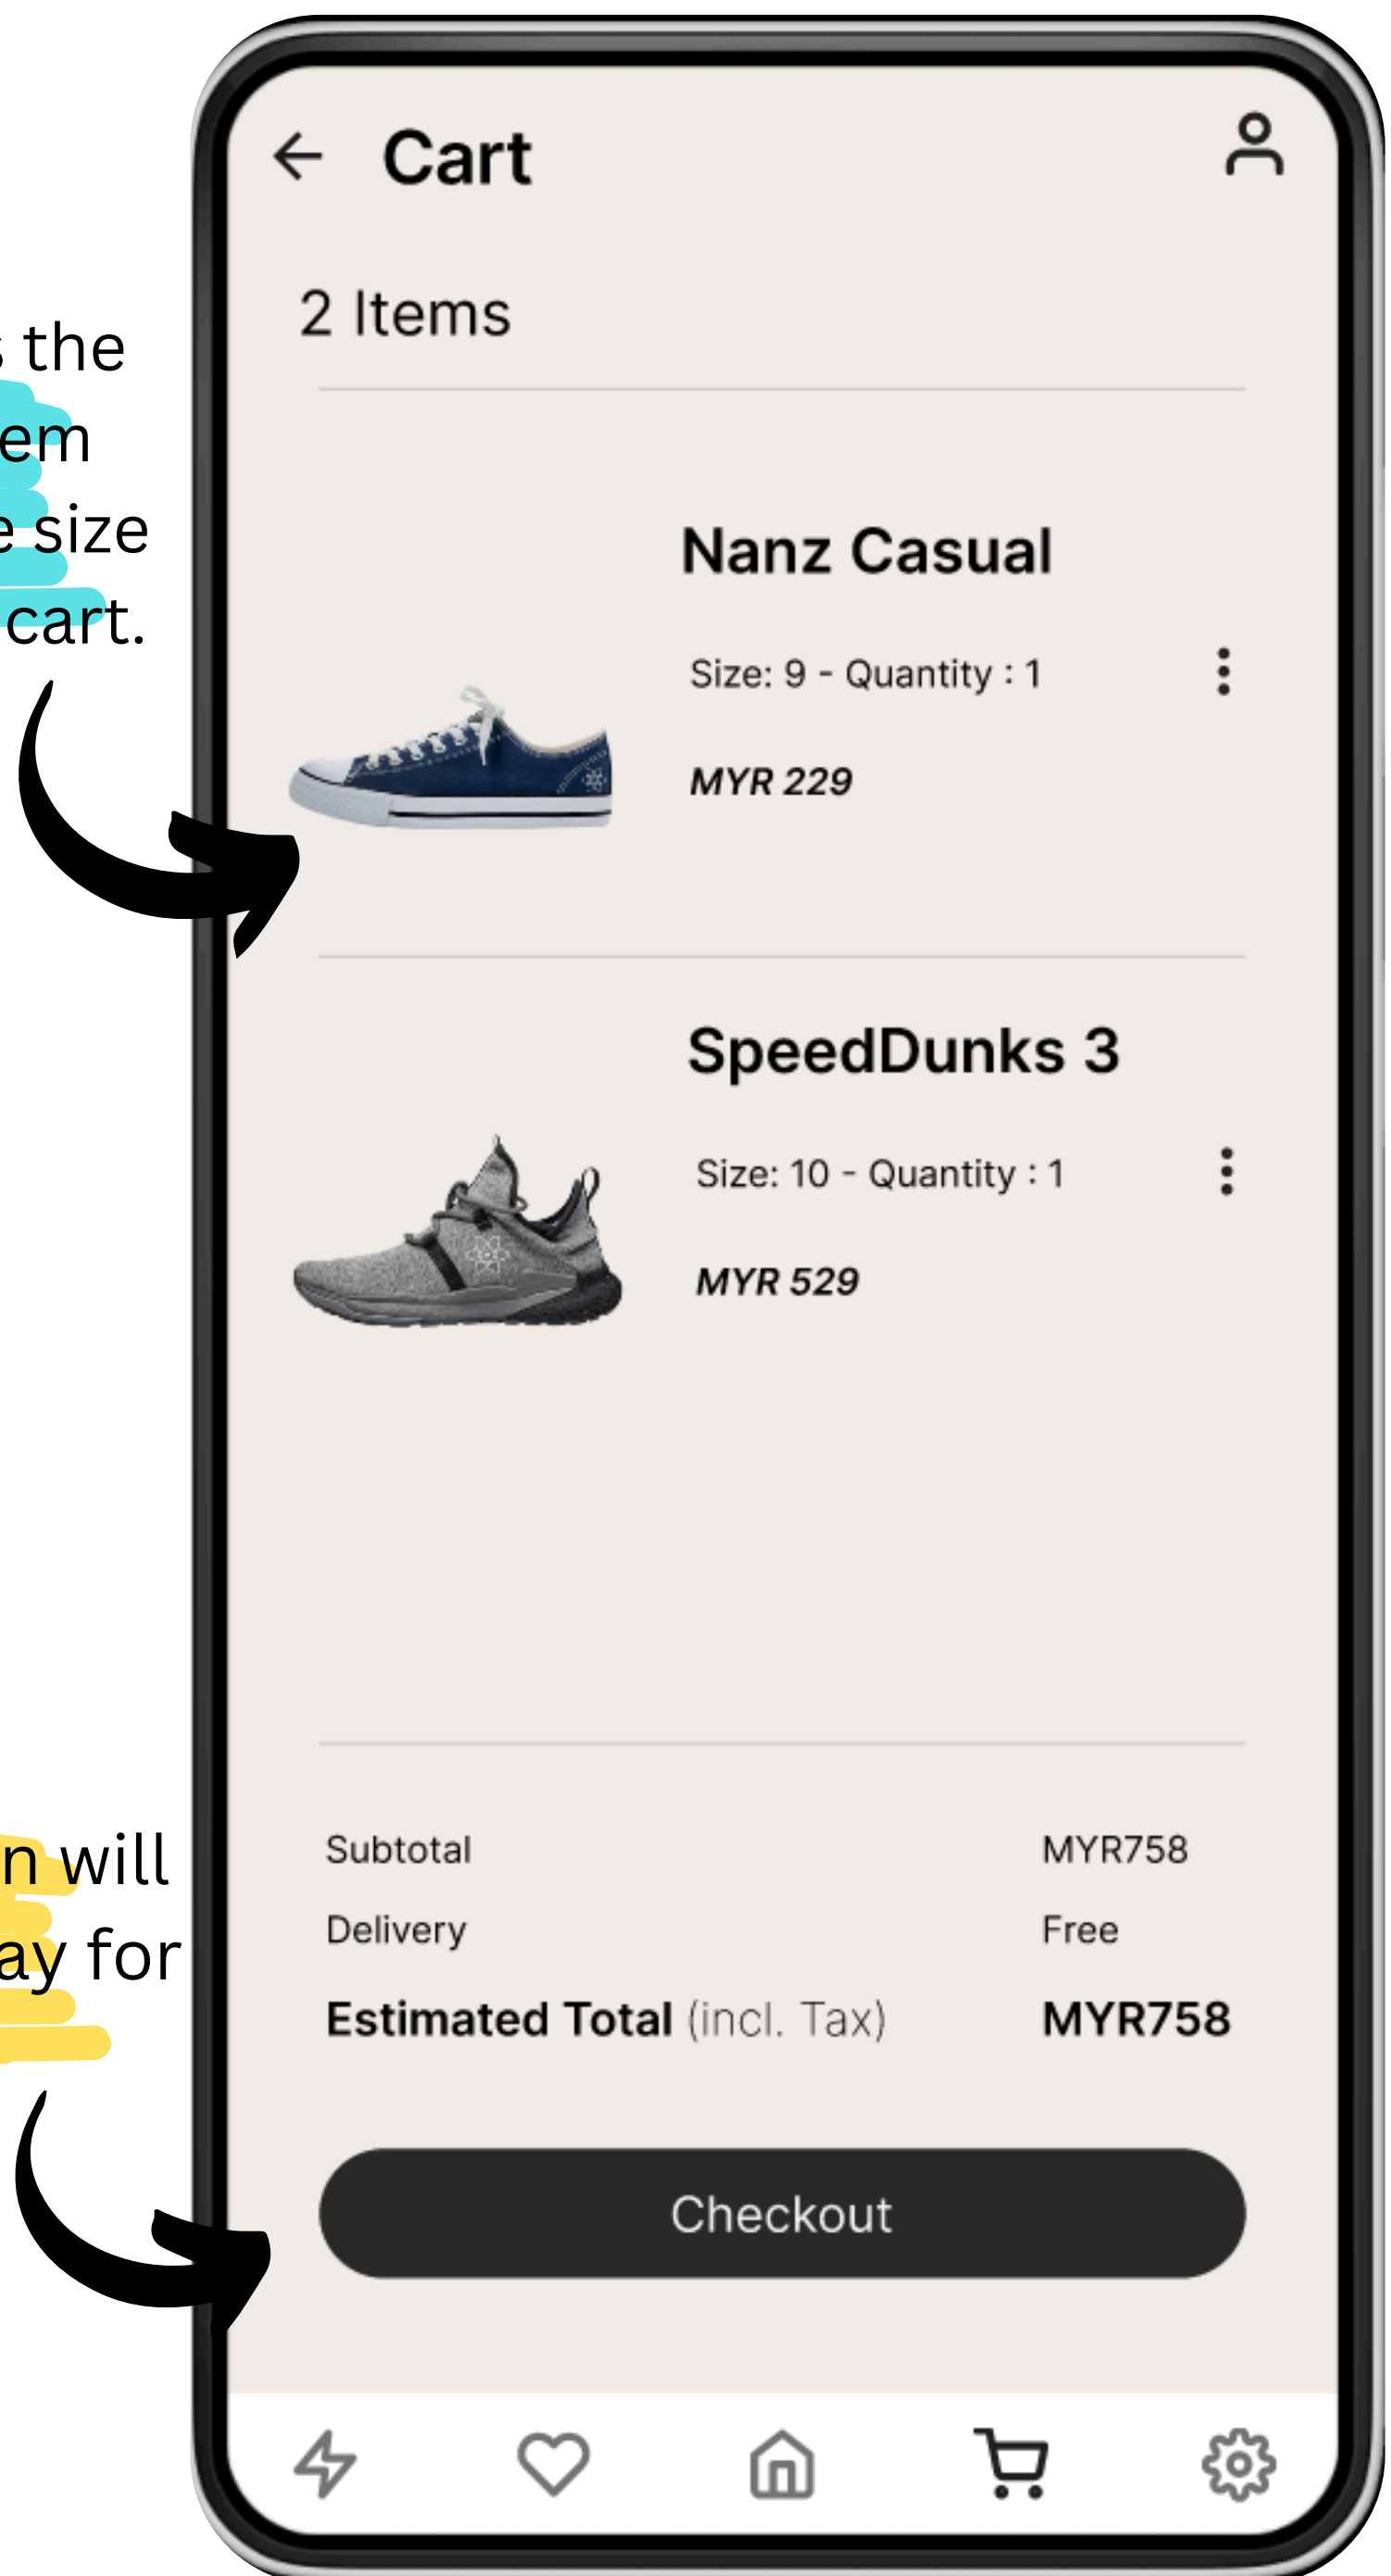

- This is the Profile Page, It shows most of the Account information here.
- On the most top part you can see your Profile Picture and your Username there.
- It will also show when your membership is valid until on the middle part
- & when are you a member since on the most below part.

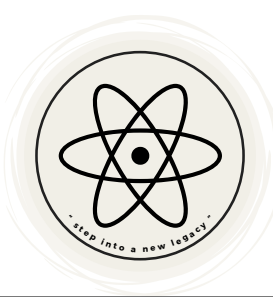

CART PAGE

Clicking on the Triple Dots besides the products allows you to modify them such as changing the colors or shoe size and also removing them from your cart.

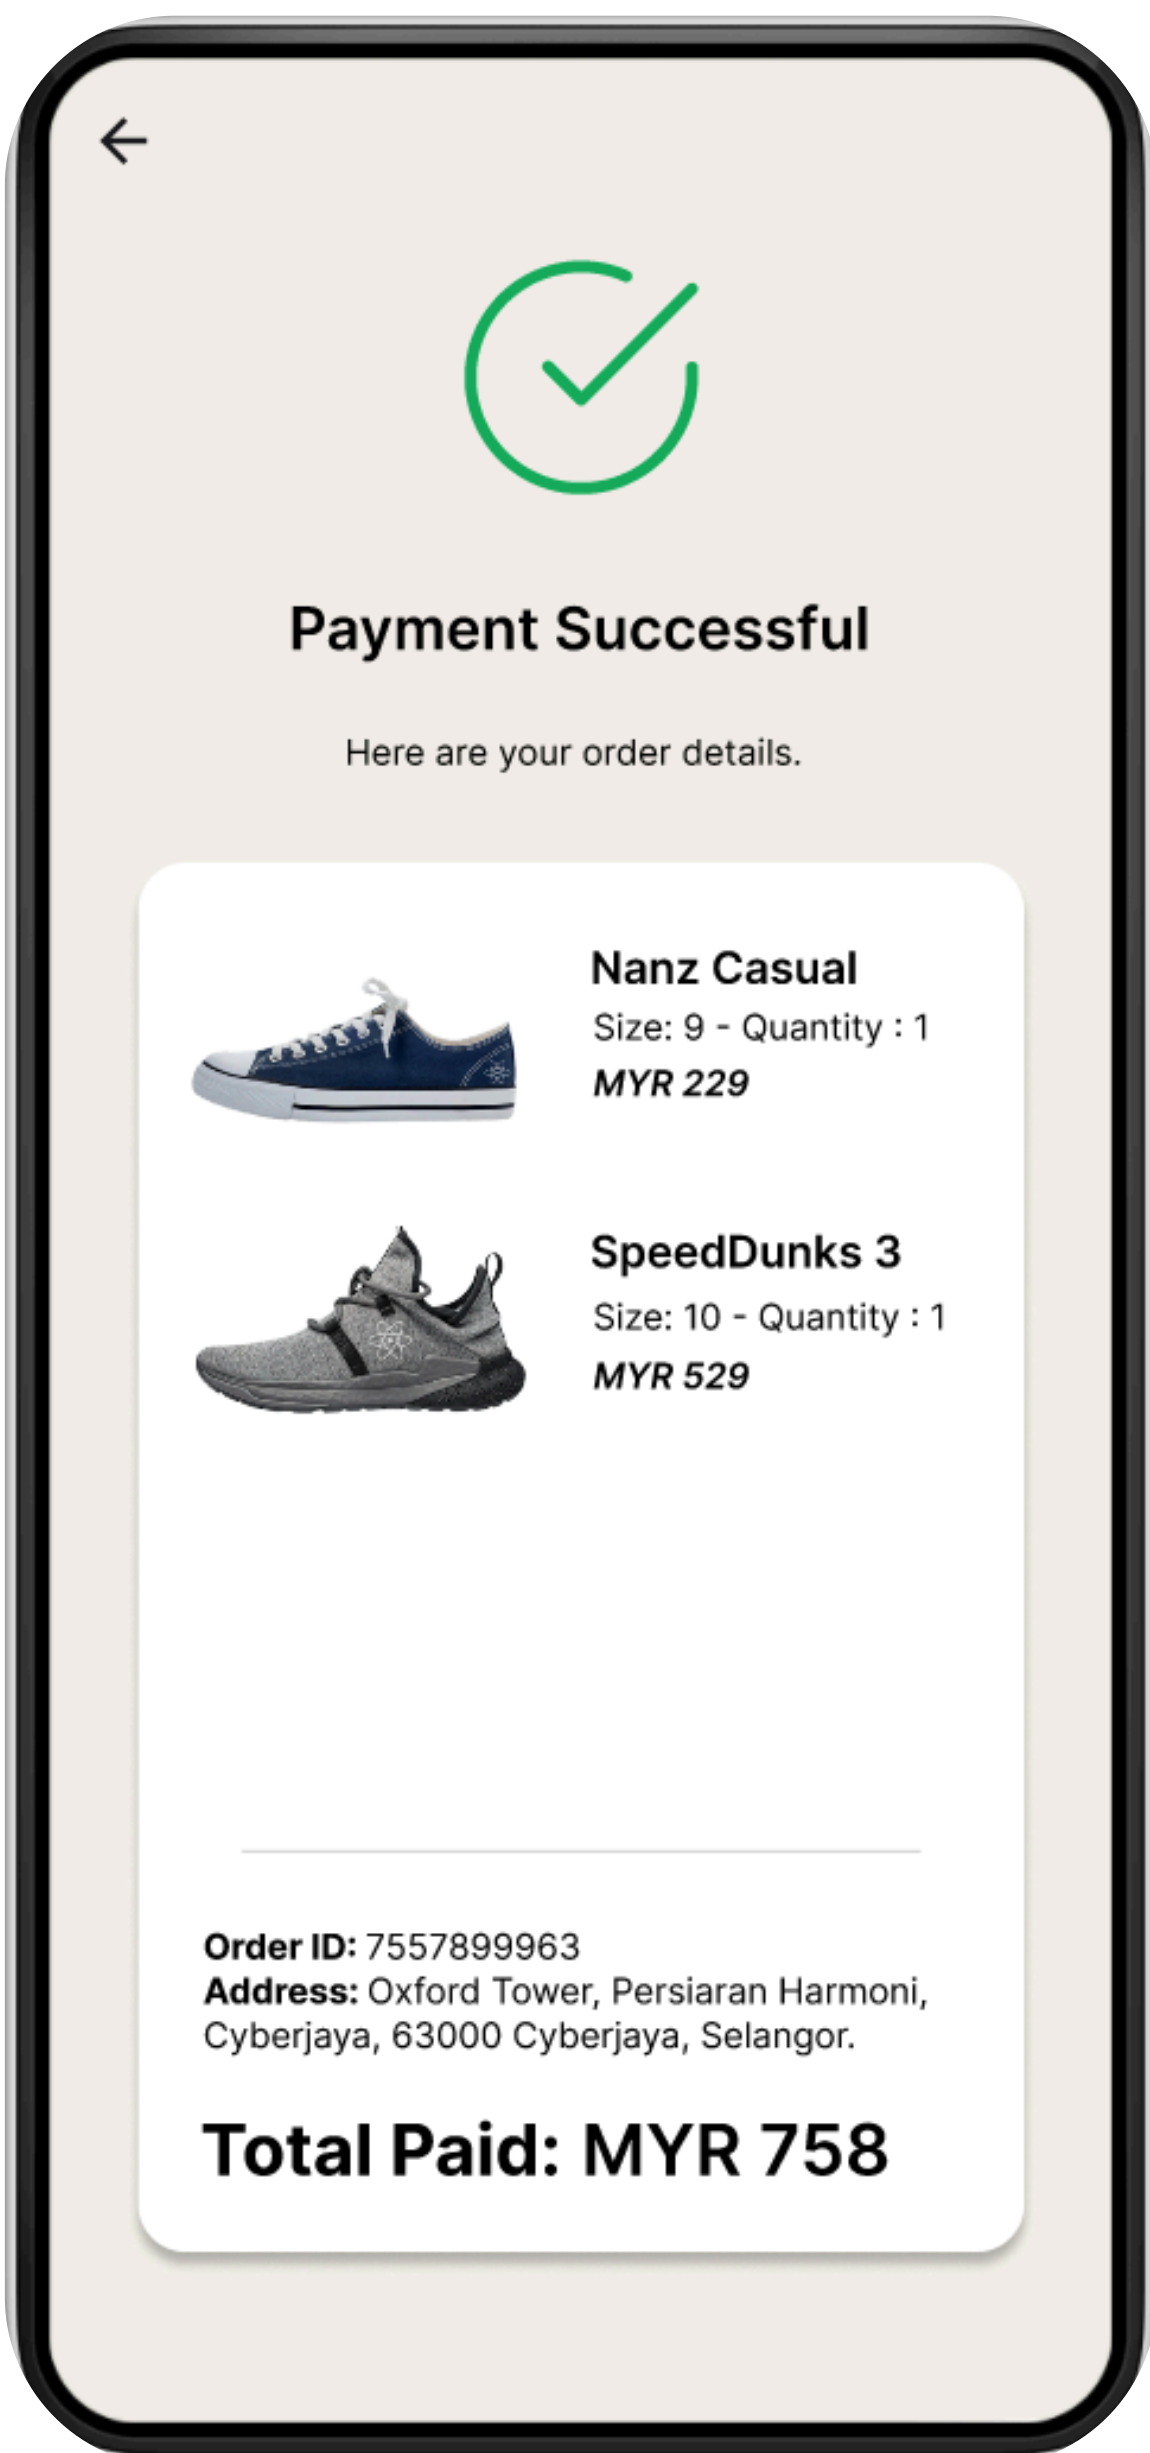

Clicking on the “Checkout” Button will bring you to a payment page to pay for the selected ammount.

- This is the Cart Page, where our users could add all the products that they wanted to purchase and they could checkout here to make payments and have their products shipped to your doorsteps.

nuke

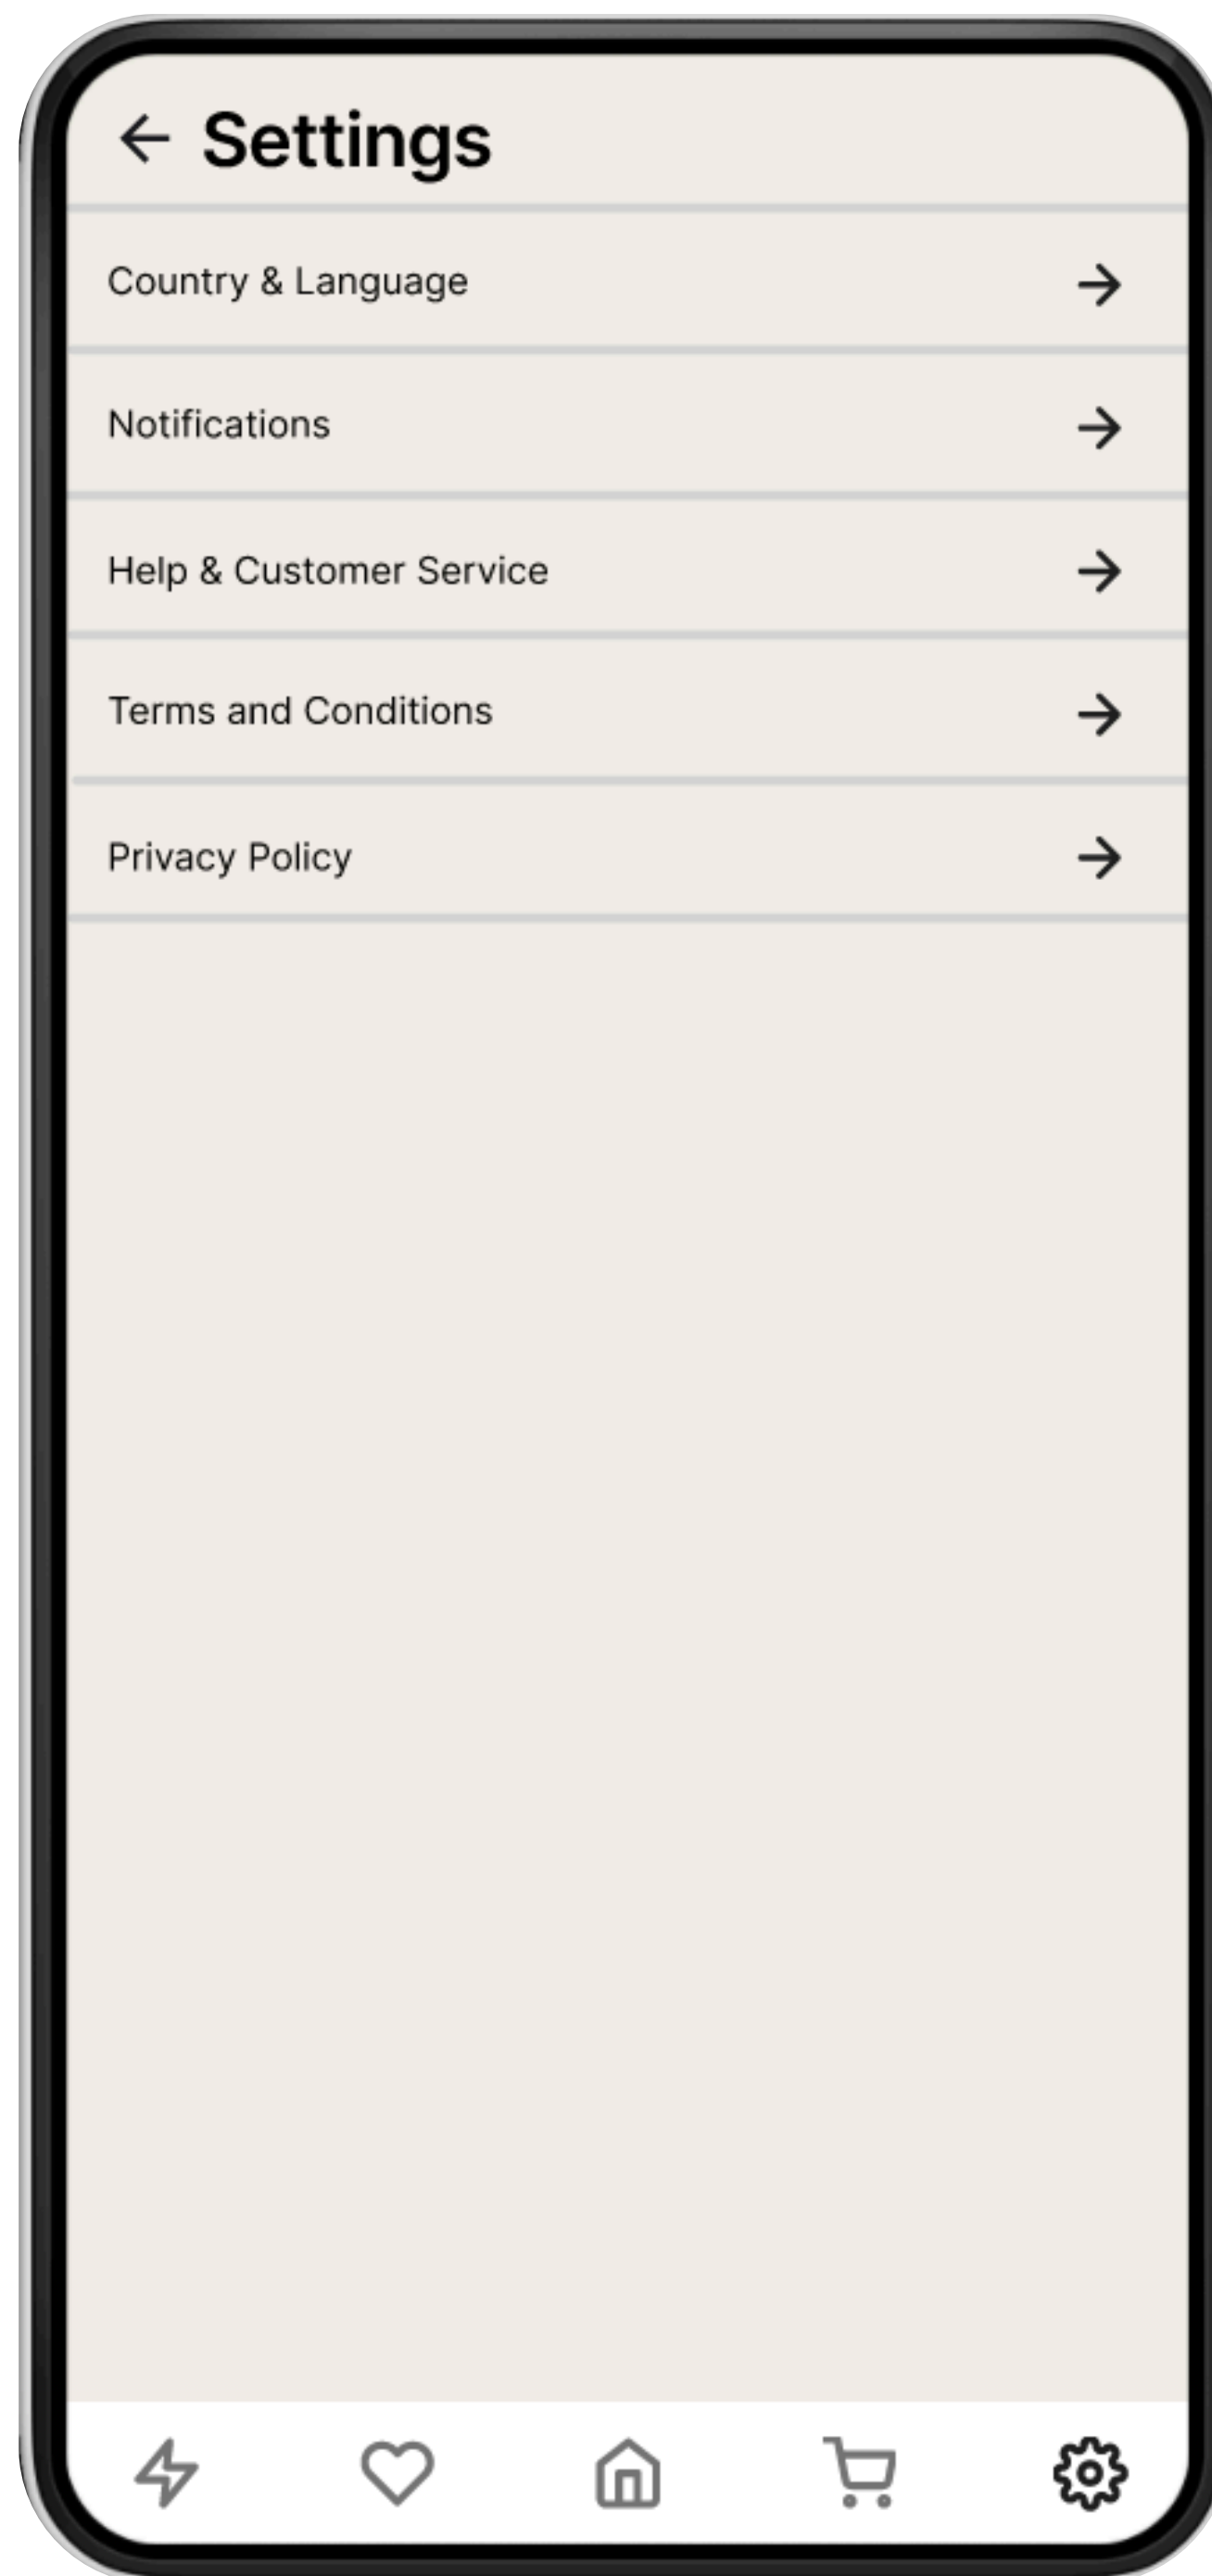

- Once payment is successfully done, A pop-up screen of Payment Successful will show and you could check on the details once more.
- Once Payment is made, You can check for the shipping details on the “Order” Page and your Profile.

nuke

SETTING PAGE

- On this setting Page, users are allowed to search for different settings to change about the applications.
- Help and Customer Service can also be found in this page.
- You can also find our Terms and Conditions or Privacy Policy here.